per cent.

Prime mercantile paper—4½ per cent.

Foreign Exchange—Dull; sterling bills, $4.86; demand $4.87.

Governments—Quiet and firm, three advancing to the bid through the forenoon.

Stocks—Dull and very steady generally at small fractions above the opening figures, but at midday the changes were only from ½ to 1 per cent for more active stocks. A moderate advance was made after 12 o'clock, which was lost before 2 p.m., and then prices were steady again until shortly before the close when the whole list weakened, and a large portion of the earlier advance was lost.Quotations of dry goods were as usual to Tuesday, and in the absence of any important news the market has been very quiet, besides which, the auction sale of flannels attracted the undivided attention of representatives of all markets. Close attention throughout the day of an unusually large number of important dealers in the evidence of a deep degree of interest. The sale passed off in a fairly satisfactory manner, and though the prices realized were not, in many instances, what they should have been, they might have been worse. The offering was wisely distributed, among the principal buyers being representatives of many well-known houses, coupons.
